

Leave & Attendance Policy

Effective Date: January 1, 2025 | SOP for Attendance, Comp-Off & Attendance Deviations effective August 6, 2026

This policy outlines the guidelines and procedures for managing employee leave balances (Earned Leave (EL) and Sick Leave (SL)) applicable going forward, together with the Standard Operating Procedure for Attendance, Comp-Off and Attendance Deviations. It is intended to ensure fair and equitable management of leave entitlements, and to lay down the procedure for applying for and availing leave.

Opening Balance and Carry Forward of Leave

- As per the leave policy, employees will have carry-forward leave balances up to a maximum of 5 days every year.
- Note: 5 days of the previous year's unused leave will be carried forward. Any leave above this limit will be forfeited.

Leave Accrual

- Post-Probation Period employees become eligible for 1.5 days of Earned Leave (EL) per month and 0.5 days of Sick Leave (SL) per month.
- Pre-Probation Period: employees are eligible for 0.5 days of Sick Leave (SL) per month.
- Note: Any leave accrued and not availed in the month will be carried to the next month till the current fiscal year.

Utilization of Sick Leave (SL)

- Eligibility: Sick Leave (SL) can be utilized only in the case of illness.
- Documentation: In order to avail Sick Leave, hospital documentation or a medical certificate pertaining to the illness is to be provided.

Process for Applying for Leave

- 1 Log in to the HRone application and on the top right side select Apply Leave and leave dates.
- 2 Select the leave type (EL / SL).
- 3 Fill in important details pertaining to the leave (leave dates, reason for leave).
- 4 Submit necessary documents (for SL, medical certificates or hospital documents).
- 5 Review by Manager / Supervisor for approval or rejection once the leave request is submitted.

Management of Leave Records

- The leave balance will be updated monthly, and the carry forward limit of 5 days shall be forfeited at the end of the year.
- Note: If any employee does not clock the minimum required hours, it will be deducted from their Earned Leave.

Maternity Leave Policy

A worker has to take maternity leave from her 8th month of pregnancy, for a total of 182 days (26 weeks), granted according to laws and company policy. Employees are asked to plan their leave in sync with the payroll cycle to facilitate easier processing. Once an employee returns from maternity leave, on-spot relieving is not going to be provided; the employee shall have to fulfil the regular notice period of 6 months in order to get relieved of work.

Paternity Leave Policy

Paternity leave is provided for 3 days following the birth of a child. Employees have to provide a formal email notification during the time of birth of the child and apply for the leave using the HRone application according to company policy.

Bereavement Leave Policy

In the event of the death of an immediate family member, employees are provided with 3 days of bereavement leave. The employees have to provide a formal email notification during the bereavement leave of the unexpected incident and apply for the leave using the HRone application according to company policy.

SOP – Attendance, Comp-Off & Attendance Deviations

1. Comp-Off Policy

Eligibility

- Employees must complete 7 or more working hours on an eligible holiday or weekend to earn a Comp-Off.
- The employee must have full attendance on the eligible working day.

Validity

- Comp-Off must be utilized within 3 months from the date it is earned.
- Comp-Off cannot be encashed and will automatically lapse if not utilized within the validity period.

HR Process

- 1 Verify attendance records.
- 2 Confirm the employee has completed 7+ working hours.
- 3 Obtain manager approval (if applicable).
- 4 Credit the Comp-Off in the leave portal.
- 5 Maintain a monthly Comp-Off tracker (e.g. September, October).
