

Leave Balance Policy

Effective Date: January 1, 2025

This policy outlines the guidelines and procedures for managing employee leave balances (Earned Leave (EL) and Sick Leave (SL)) applicable going forward. It is intended to ensure fair and equitable management of leave entitlements, and lay down the procedure of applying and availing leave.

Opening Balance and Carry Forward of Leave

Opening Balance January 2025

As per the new leave policy, Employees will have carry-forward leave balances up to a maximum of 5 days on every year.

Note: 5 days of the previous year's unused leave will be carried forward. Any leave above this limit will be forfeited.

Leave Accrual

Post-Probation Period employees become eligible for

- 1.5 days of Earned Leave (EL) per month & 0.5 days of Sick Leave (SL) per month.
- Pre-Probation Period: Employees are eligible for 0.5 days of Sick Leave (SL) per month.

Note: Any leave accrued and not availed in the month will be carried to the next month till current fiscal year.

Utilization of Sick Leave (SL)

- Eligibility of Sick Leave (SL) can be utilized in only the case of illness.
- Documentation: In order to avail of Sick Leave, hospital documentations or medical certificate pertaining to the illness are to be provided.

Process for Applying for Leave

Leave requests will follow the as below procedure:

1. Log in to the HRone application & on top right side select Apply Leave and Leave dates
2. Select the leave type (EL/SL).
3. Fill in important details pertaining to the leave (leave dates, reason for leave).
4. Submit necessary documents (for SL, medical certificates or hospital documents).

5. Review by Manager/Supervisor for approval or rejection once the leave request is submitted.

Management of Leave Records

- The leave balance will be updated monthly, and an employee can view his/her leave balance through HRone Portal.
- Any employee is encouraged to check his/her leave balances regularly and plan his/her leaves properly accordingly to avoid inconvenience.

Carry Forward and Forfeiture of Leave

- Carry Forward: 5 days of unused leave will be carried forward into the next calendar year.
- Forfeiture: All unused leaves beyond the carry forward limit of 5 days shall be forfeited at the end of the year.

Special Leave and Other Leave Types

This policy references only to Earned Leave (EL) and Sick Leave (SL).

Note: If any employee does not clock the minimum required hours, it will be deducted from their Earned Leave.

Maternity Leave Policy

A worker has to take maternity leave from her 8th month of pregnancy, for a total of 182 days (26 weeks), will be granted maternity leave according to laws and company policy.

Employees are asked to plan their leave in sync with the payroll cycle to facilitate easier processing.

Moreover, once an employee returns from maternity leave, on-spot relieving is not going to be provided. The employee shall have to fulfill the regular notice period of 6months in order to get relieved of work.

Paternity Leave Policy

Paternity leave is provided for 3 days following the birth of a child. The employees have to provide a formal email notification during the time of birth of the child and apply for the leave using the HRone application according to company policy.

Bereavement Leave Policy

In the event of the death of an immediate family member, employees are provided with 3 days of bereavement leave. The employees have to provide a formal email notification during the Bereavement Leave of the unexpected incident and apply for the leave using the HRone application according to company policy.